

This proposal is for those that will not discipline themselves to pass a Morse Code Test. CW is now more important than ever, not only for Ham Radio itself but for our national and local public service. I will back the Fist Club proposal (no number assigned yet).